

FORT ROSS
Founded by Russian fur-traders in 1812, this fort was the center of the Russian fur trade in California. The fort was abandoned in 1841 and is now a state historic monument.

CHAPEL AT FORT ROSS
CALIF. STATE MONUMENT

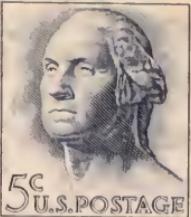

On scenic Shorline Hwy. No. 1, 75 miles north of San Francisco. The Fort was built by the Russians in 1812 and was purchased by John A. Sutter in 1841 at which time the Russians withdrew to Alaska.

I am working just north of here in a place called Guadala. It's beautiful country. I've been here 3 days but will leave tomorrow for Berkeley
Joe

16379

Photo by B. M. Gaskill

Pub. by B. M. Gaskill, 8736 Graton Rd., Sebastopol, Calif.

Post Card

Mr. & Mrs. J. R. Mawson
15 Cooper St.
Springfield Mass